Brain teasers

Spain and Falcao (BRA) were the answers to yesterday's teasers. Here are two more for you:

- 1) In which country was futsal founded?
- 2) The UEFA Futsal Cup kicks off in August with the preliminary round, but who reached the final 4 last season?

Erciyes University cool down after a tough game with Eindhoven, which they won 5:3.

Zagreb (CRO) and SUMI (UKR) have both secured a place in the semi final by finishing top of their groups with a game remaining. Groups A and B will be decided today.

Dnepropetrovsk (UKR) take on Zurich (SUI) needing a draw to win the group, while Zurich can qualify with a win. Erciyes can qualify with a 5 goal win against group leaders Novi Sad.

Did you know?

Futsal isn't very popular in the »big« footballing nations France, Germany and England. The French FA held a four team tournament to promote the game with Zinedine Zidane playing futsal for a team made up from some of the World Cup 98 winning side. Over 15,000 spectators turned up to watch Zidane and co. play futsal.

Matchday round-up

Novi Sad, Ser : Roma IUMS, Ita

The teams were in the first half of the game very close together. Serbs took the lead in the last half and then they were unstoppable. In the whole game they scored six times and Italians scored twice. The italians can now only aim for a 2nd place finish, but will need other results to go their way. Novi Sad now only need a draw to go through to the semi final.

Murcia, Spa : Podgorica, Mon

The next game in group D was between Spain and Montenegro. The first half ended equal, 1:1. In the second half the Spanish team took the lead and the Montenegro team could not catch them any more. The final score was 3:2 for the Spanish team.

One of the Spanish players on the bench thought about the game: "We played very well, our players played better today. Montenegro team is strong but too slow."

Selected Reports

Wrocław, Pol : Munster, Ger

In the first half of the match between Poland and Germany, Germany was leading. They were attacking a lot. Poland returned the strike in the second half, when they managed to make a tie and the result at the end of the match was 5:5.

»We are a little bit disappointed about the match, because we were leading the most of the game. At night we like to go to Playa at the beach. We saw there few famous people from Slovenia. We also went to Tivoli on Tuesday, when there was the welcome party but we did not stay long. We like it here in Slovenia and we will come back again.«

Coimbra, Por : Zurich, Sui

The game between Suisse and Portugal was a game nobody should miss. The Suisse team started the game with their goal in the third minute. Just a minute later the Portuguese returned the strike. The score was tied to the 32. minute, when the Portuguese, with some struggle, succeed to score another goal. After a quite equal match the final score was 4:2 for the Portuguese team.
